

Financial Services Guide

Who are we?

We are Ian Berry Insurance Services Pty Ltd. Ian Berry Insurance Services Pty Ltd ('IBIS') is an Authorised Representative No 259485 of Police Credit Union Ltd ('PCU').

The information in this document

Our Financial Services Guide ('FSG') is designed to help you decide whether to acquire the financial products and services we offer as an Authorised Representative of Police Credit Union Ltd (PCU) and is current as at 29 April, 2010. It contains information about:

- » The products and services we offer as an Authorised Representative of PCU
- » Other providers PCU acts for when we provide on its behalf some products and services, such as insurance
- » Remuneration that may be paid to us and others in relation to the products and services we offer
- » Associations we or PCU have that could influence the recommendations we make
- » How complaints made against us or PCU are dealt with
- » How to contact us and PCU.

Other documents you may be given

You will be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) whenever we recommend or offer to issue to you an insurance product authorised by PCU's Australian Financial Services licence.

The PDS provides information on the actual product including product details affecting the product or service and how to resolve a dispute.

The PDS will help you compare insurance products to assist you to decide whether you wish to acquire the product.

If we provide you with personal advice about an insurance product, or about any other product that is not a 'basic deposit' product, a related non-cash payment product, or a credit product, you will be given a Statement of Advice (SOA).

Personal advice is advice that takes into account your objectives, financial situation or needs. The SOA will set out the advice we have given you, explain the basis for the advice, and give you information about any remuneration, commission or associations with others that may have influenced the advice. The SOA will be your record of the advice and help you understand why the advice was given.

Remuneration that may be paid to us and others in relation to the products and services we offer

If we provide you with a product or service on behalf of PCU you may have to pay PCU fees and charges. Details of PCU's fees and charges are set out in PCU's General Service Fees Sheet.

If an insurance policy is issued to you by or on behalf of QBE you will have to pay a premium to QBE, details of which are set out in the Product Disclosure Statements for those products. PCU receives commission from QBE. If and when you take out a policy with QBE, through us, PCU is paid commission at rates of up to 25% of the premium. PCU pays that commission on to us.

PCU receives commission on AMEX non-cash payment products provided by us. The commission ranges from $10.00 to 1.1% of the face value of the products provided.

PCU receives commission on Travelex Cash Passport Cards provided by us. The commission ranges from $15.00 to 1.1% of the face value of the products provided.

PCU receives commission on transactions made using Visa ranging from 0% to 1.24% of the value of the transaction. The commission rates vary depending on whether the transactions are performed within Australia or outside Australia.

PCU receives commission on transactions made using BPAY® of 0.27% of the value of the transaction, plus between $0.37 and $0.41 per transaction paid by the biller institution.

PCU receives a rebate on the purchase of Carbon Credits from Carbon Planet. The rebate is 20% of the face value of the credits purchased.

PCU may receive a portion of the brokerage fee paid by you when conducting any Online Share trading and related services through GET using GET Trader, GET Web Trader or GET Mobile Trader. This payment may range from $10 to 0.1% of the value of the transaction.

PCU receives a commission of 20% (plus GST) for each premium paid for referring Members to Zurich.

PCU may pay commissions or provide other benefits to external parties who refer customers to PCU. These benefits and commissions could consist of a single one-off payment or benefit, or calculated as a percentage of the total amount of sales generated by the external party's referrals.

PCU staff members, and our staff members, receive salaries. They may also be eligible to receive a small bonus payment for their performance during the year or if they achieve certain set service levels.
