Financial Services Guide

Who are we?

We are Ian Berry Insurance Services Pty Ltd. Ian Berry Insurance Services Pty Ltd ('IBIS') is an Authorised Representative No 259485 of Police Credit Union Ltd ('PCU') AFSL/Australian Credit Licence 238991.

The information in this document

Our Financial Services Guide ('FSG') is designed to help you decide whether to acquire the financial products and services we offer as an Authorised Representative of PCU. It contains information about:

- » The products and services we offer as an Authorised Representative of PCU
- » Other providers PCU acts for when we provide on its behalf some products and services, such as insurance
- » Remuneration that may be paid to us and others in relation to the products and services we offer
- » Associations we or PCU have that could influence the recommendations we make
- » How complaints made against us or PCU are dealt with
- » How to contact us and PCU.

Other documents you may be given

You will be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) whenever we recommend or offer to issue to you an insurance product authorised by PCU's Australian Financial Services licence.

The PDS provides information on the actual product including product details affecting the product or service and how to resolve a dispute.

The PDS will help you compare insurance products to assist you to decide whether you wish to acquire the product.

If we provide you with personal advice about consumer credit insurance products you will be given a Statement of Advice (SOA).

Personal advice is advice that takes into account your objectives, financial situation or needs. The SOA will set out the advice we have given you, explain the basis for the advice, and give you information about any remuneration, commission or associations with others that may have influenced the advice. The SOA will be your record of the advice and help you understand why the advice was given.
